Nature and History Scout Programs at Claude Moore Park

All levels of Girl Scouts, Cubs Scouts, and Boy Scouts can earn recognitions and patches while exploring the natural and historic resources of Claude Moore Park.

The natural areas and historic sites of Claude Moore Park are the perfect place for your scouts to earn recognitions. Your trip will be tailor-made for the badge you have selected. You may explore forest trails, pond habitats, flowering meadows, or the Frogshackle Nature Center. An old Indian trail, 1770's home used as an ordinary and post office, and historic flags and costumes will connect scouts with our past.

We offer two methods for scheduling your trip:

- Sign up for pre-scheduled badge programs.
- Go to www.loudoun.gov/webtrac. for information on badge programs, dates, activity numbers and to register.
- Leaders should have their scouts register individually.
- Fee is $6.00 per Scout; Out of County $8.50 per Scout. Save $1.00 per program using online registration (county rate $5.00, non-residents $7.50.)
- Scout Troops or Dens: when multiple scouts are attending they must be accompanied by one or two leaders or other responsible adults.
- Individual Scouts must be accompanied by a parent or other adult.
- Call 571-258-3700 if you have questions.

2. Schedule your own troop's program

- Fee is $5.00 per Scout, with a $50.00 minimum for Loudoun County troops; Out of County troops $7.50 per Scout, with a $75.00 minimum.
- Contact Assistant Park Manager at 571-258-3704 or dodie.lewis@loudoun.gov to arrange a program.
- Scheduling is subject to the availability of Naturalist Instructors.
